NOTEWORTHY...

Saturday 19th April Charity Cricket Match

Cricket fever has hit the capital as the Emirates Palace Cricket Club competes in a charity cricket match. The friendly game will see the Palace's team pinned up against the Mixed Kebabs, a team of enthusiastic residents, to raise funds for the Make-A-Wish Foundation UAE and Indian boxing club Maharashtra Institute of Games & Sports. The game will be played from 1pm at Emirates Palace. To sponsor or for more details, call: 056 602 6116

Wednesday 30th April King Willem Day

Whether you're Dutch or just love a good festival, head down to Le Méridien to celebrate King's Day (formerly Queen's Day). In honour of King Willem-Alexander, Dutch citizens around the world show their pride doused in orange from top to toe. Le Méridien's central garden will be transformed into a Dutch city lined with tulips and the customary orange relics. Visiting Dutch singer Wilfred Belles soundtracks the festival while visitors tuck into a plethora of authentic dishes including Ossenworst, hutspot and stroopwafels. From 4pm. Free entrance. For more information, call: 02 644 6666

23rd to 25th April Trojan Women

Thespians of the capital are taking to the stage for their adaptation of the timeless tale that follows the women of Troy after their city has been destroyed and their husbands killed in battle. Presented by the capital's Resuscitation Theatre, who rework classics into modern pieces, Trojan Women, deemed the company's most 'ambitious project to date', will treat audiences to three nights of performances at 8pm at The National Theatre on Airport Road. Suggested minimum contribution AED 75 for adults, AED 50 for students. For more information, call: 050 837 1563 ✉
